Dear Sir/Madam:

This letter serves as my recommendation and testimonial for Elite Events Catering.

Elite Events Catering is my go-to caterer for all of my events. I have been in a marketing role for over 30 years in-charge of corporate events and Elite Events Catering is one of the best caterers, if not THE best, that I have used in my long career. Here's why:

- Food – Just simply delicious. The quality and presentation is top-notch. The variety of menu selection is unique.
- Service – While the owners Melissa and John, are always at your service, it is very rare to see the level of service of their event staff. I am always at ease when I see my firm's clients interacting with the staff and knowing their needs are being met.
- Creativity – Elite Catering Services is extremely creative in room set-up and additional elements of an event such as music, lighting etc.
- Logistics – No matter where the event is located, Elite Events Catering knows how to work with building requirements, loading docks, kitchen facilities, etc.

I have used Elite Events Catering for events in my office and off premises, both small and large events (300+). I also enjoy the "one-stop shop" service that they offer which makes event planning less difficult as an event planner. My firm is now known to have a reputation for quality events thanks to Elite Events Catering.

And the best part is, Melissa and John are the nicest people you'll ever want to work with!

Sincerely,
